IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between the parties herein that the Defendant's term of probation be terminated. The Judgment in this matter filed February 7, 2005, sentenced the Defendant to a term of probation for 18 months. Furthermore, the Judgment indicated that "if after 11 months of consistent reporting compliance, defense may move to terminate probation after Defendant's completion of one year probation".

United States Probation Officer Carmen O'Mallan contacted counsel for the defendant and indicated that Mr. Rollins requested to terminate probation early as outlined in the Judgment. Mr. Rollins has been working in Iraq and is due to complete his work assignment there. After completion of his work assignment, it is his desire to relocate to Florida.

ORIGINAL

United States Probation Officer Carmen O'Mallan indicated that Mr. Rollins has complied with the conditions of probation and is in agreement that his probationary period should terminate early.

Therefore, the parties request that this court grant this stipulation and issue an Order terminating Mr. Rollins probationary period.

IT IS SO STIPULATED:

DATED: Mongmong, Guam, January 31, 2006.
